*You gave us strength,
you gave us love;
The kind only a mother could give.
We couldn't keep you;
your struggle is over,
Fly home on the wings of a dove.*

*Close your gentle eyes,
so tired they are,
Lay to rest your worries and pain.
With angels to guide you,
it's time to fly,
We know you'll never be far.
"Mom you will always be our angel".*
